UNDERTAKING

I, Fay Marie ARMSTRONG, UNDERTAKE to the COMMISSIONER FOR CONSUMER PROTECTION for the purpose of section 218 of the Australian Consumer Law (WA) that I will not, whether by my servants, agents or otherwise:

1. represent, whether expressly or impliedly, that any animal that I sell or offer for sale is in good health, has been vaccinated, or has been wormed, without first obtaining a written report of a suitably qualified veterinarian stating precisely that;
2. sell or offer for sale an animal without first obtaining a written report of a suitably qualified veterinarian as to the animal's condition;
3. sell or offer for sale an animal without providing to the purchaser a written report of a suitably qualified veterinarian as to the animal's condition;
4. sell or offer for sale an animal with parvovirus, hepatitis, distemper, parainfluenza, or bordatellabronchiosepta;
5. sell or offer for sale an animal without first having that animal tested for and vaccinated against parvovirus, hepatitis, distemper, parainfluenza, or bordatellabronchiosepta;
6. without limiting any the above, enter into an agreement for the supply of a dog without obtaining and providing a written report of a suitably qualified veterinarian as to the animal's condition;
7. without limiting any the above, accept payment or other consideration for the supply of an animal without obtaining and providing a written report of a suitably qualified veterinarian as to the animal's condition.

In so undertaking I understand that this undertaking is ENFORCEABLE by the Commissioner for Consumer Protection in the Supreme Court of Western Australia, and the sanctions described in section 218 of the Australian Consumer Law (WA) for breach are available.
